
Does Medicare Documentation Present a Challenge for You?

Would you like to stay current with today's wheelchair documentation requirements?

Are you a Clinician who prescribes wheelchairs for individuals with Medicare?

This Webinar is for you!

“Navigating Your Way Through the Maze of Documentation.”

Two convenient time choices

Monday October 4th, 4:00 - 5:30PM EST (3PM CST, 2PM MST, 1PM PST)

or

Wednesday October 6th, 7:00 - 8:30PM EST (6PM CST, 5PM MST, 4PM PST)

Fee: Only $20

*Sign up today
On Line*

Learn what qualifies as good documentation for proper funding, how to assess your evaluation form to be sure it is the best in documentation collection and what would qualify specific products for proper funding. Working together, our goal is to provide the client with the most appropriate product within their individual insurance program. Learn the best way to accomplish this in the most efficient manner possible.

Level of Instruction - Intermediate

Learning Objectives:

1. Learn what qualifies as good documentation for proper funding
2. Learn how to develop tools that will assist with documentation collection
3. Learn what would qualify specific products for proper funding

Course Outline:

1. Introduction
 2. Understanding Medical Policy
 3. Documentation Review
 4. Tying Product Selection to Policy and Documentation
- Certificate of Completion & 0.2 ICAET CEU's awarded

Where & How to Enroll:

This Webinar can be accessed anywhere a computer with an internet connection is available. No phone line is required.

To register, go to: www.atgrehab.com/education and click on webinars

Presented by Claudia Amortegui
President, The Orion Group

The rare combination of industry experience enables Claudia and her team at The Orion Group to assist providers, clinicians & manufacturers in understanding the reimbursement process and to teach them how they can not only be successful, but also provide successful patient outcomes.

Life. In Motion.